RASPOUTINE

After captivating Paris, electrifying Los Angeles and conquering Dubai, RASPOUTINE is now set to leave its mark on Saint-Tropez, on the legendary Place des Lices.

A place that reveals itself only to those who know.

A nightlife institution with a legendary past, RASPOUTINE cultivates a rare presence, drawing a select crowd - silhouettes, insiders, fashion figures and free spirits.

Entry is discreet, almost confidential.

Red velvet, dim lighting, hushed alcoves: a setting where Erté's baroque opulence is reinvented through a contemporary lens.

DANCE 'TILL DAWN

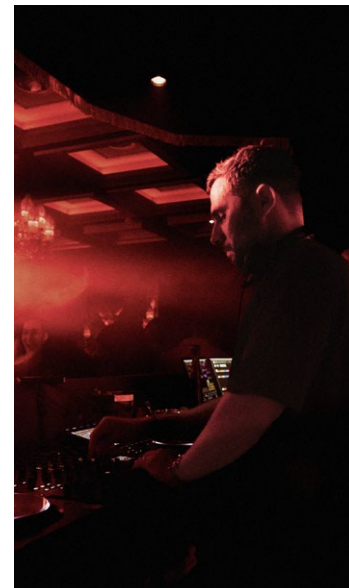

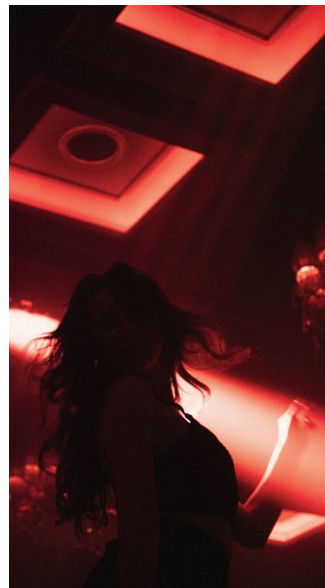

Here, the music sets the tone.

A signature deep house sound, shaped by a sharp lineup, where resident DJs cross paths with international guests.

It's a place to be seen without ever quite showing yourself.

Between fleeting appearances and hushed conversations, everyone shapes their own night, whether at a distance or at the heart of the rhythm.

In Saint-Tropez, RASPOUTINE doesn't follow the party.
It shapes the night.
